

TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION SERVICES

TRANSLATION

IHS offers translation services in more than 200 languages and dialects. Specializing in letters, legal documents, forms, advertisements, technical documents, product manuals, medical forms, websites and more.

Our language professionals are native speakers of the target language and are specifically trained with high technical standards. We combine reliable technology and expert linguists who are knowledgeable with the nuances of workers' compensation claimants. By this we make certain the message is culturally accurate while still protecting the integrity of the message.

ON-SITE INTERPRETATION

IHS meets cross-cultural communication needs between individuals and organizations with specialized on-site interpreting.

Utilizing a network of over 10,000 interpreters, IHS provides linguists for:

- Recorded Statements
- Medical Appointments, IMEs, FCEs, QMEs
- Case Management Assessments
- ALS & BLS Ambulance
- Depositions
- Mediations
